

Natsha Sivret

Mtre Natasha Sivret

Litigation Municipal law

EDUCATION :	Bachelor in anthropology (B.A.) – Concordia (with distinction) Bachelor of laws (LL.B.) – Université du Québec à Montréal (honour roll)
BAR ADMISSION :	Québec (2015)
PHONE :	514 392-5721
FAX :	514 331-0514
EMAIL :	nsivret@dhcavocats.ca
ASSITANT :	Claudia Lauzon 514 331-5010 #5751

Mtre Sivret practices in civil and commercial litigation with a focus on municipal and real estate law. She represents a diverse clientele ranging from municipalities, enterprises to particulars in front of the Court of Québec, the Superior Court and the Court of Appeal. Mtre Sivret also prosecutes cases before the Court of Quebec and many municipal courts in matters of urban planning, collection and municipal pricing, as well as in criminal and penal matters. She is listed among the advisors in municipal ethics and deontology established by the Commission municipale du Québec, and is called by multiple organizations to offer training to elected officials and municipal civil servants in many areas of municipal law.

Mtre Sivret practices in civil and commercial litigation with a focus on municipal and real estate law. She represents a diverse clientele ranging from municipalities, enterprises to particulars in front of the Court of Québec, the Superior Court and the Court of Appeal.

Mtre Sivret also prosecutes cases before the Court of Quebec and many municipal courts in matters of urban planning, collection and municipal pricing, as well as in criminal and penal matters.

She is listed among the advisors in municipal ethics and deontology established by the Commission municipale du Québec, and is called by multiple organizations to offer training to elected officials and municipal civil servants in many areas of municipal law.