Me Paul A. Venne has more than twenty-five (25) years of practice dedicated exclusively to labour and employment law in all its forms, be it in accreditation, grievance arbitration, labour standards, the Canada Labour Code, occupational health and safety or in the negotiation of collective agreements.

Over the years, he has developed a loyal clientele from all economic sectors including the manufacturing, pulp and paper, pharmaceutical and municipal sectors.

Me Venne frequently represents clients before all decision-making bodies, however, he distinguishes himself by seeking practical solutions to guide managers in the resolution of the complex problems which they face.
